

Contributing Authors

At the beginning of 2022, there were 101 Contributing authors to the library. JPN legally renamed the library 1/15/22.

Our goal is to continue to grow with new authors every year. .

Many has been interviewed on Open Book * The JPN Network On the RUKO Channel

Joynt Production Network

Joynt Production Network, Inc. "JPN" takes pride in continuing the vision. In 2012 Emma Gresham wanted to open a library in rural Keyesville, Ga. and since Jackie Bosby needed heritage books for her expo, together they felt this was a win, win.

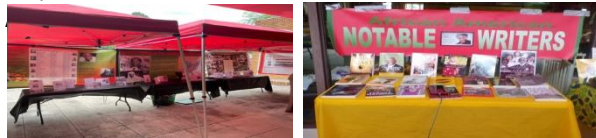

So combing their ideas, in 2018, there was a ribbon cutting, for the Emma Gresham African American Research Library, unfortunately the legacy but not the vision died when Emma Gresham passed away two months later. Her family asked that we do not use her name or her photos to represent the library.

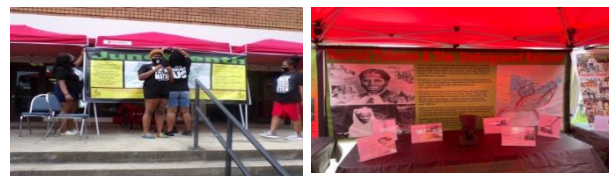

So from April 2018-January 2020 JPN tried to do everything to bring notoriety of the library to Boggs Rural Life Center but with no support from Keyesville, Burke County or Boggs Rural Life Center, the library never grew.

June 19, 2020 JPN decided to make the library a part of their Youth Heritage Program: which is a traveling heritage exposition.

May 2021, JPN produced a TV Series to promote the

JPN will continue to promote the reading & writing programs through the JPN African American Research Library

Express H.O.M.E. Program, Inc.
